

Élève Jorge Garcia Samartin

Matière English

Classe 4⁰³

Date October 10th

Note

Summary

Mr. Lockwoods owns a house in Yorkshire. The first day, he comes to see the proprietary of the house ^{who is} her neighbour. He finds him an intelligent person, but he don't like his dogs.

He decided to visit him the next day and he finds more people in the house: Mr. Heathcliff, the daughter in law of Mr. Heathcliff, a young man called Hareton Earnshaw and two servants: Joseph and Zillah.

He starts to snow and he propose to Mr. Heathcliff to stay in her house, but he only offers to him to sleep in the same bed of the servants. Mr. Lockwoods try to return, but he can't and he decide to remain in Wuthering Heights.

Vocabulary

MOORS: Large ~~area~~ of terrain with grass

Tenant: the person who payes money to live in a house ✓

To snarl: to grumble ✓

To stare: to look fixly ✓

Gypsy: a ^{nomad tribe} who comes from the West of Europe a black hair and dark skin person

Thick: thing who has much weight the opposite of narrow

Narrow: thing or space who don't has much horizontal space the opposite of thick

To carve: to write things in the stone ✓

Landlord: the ^{owner} head of the house ✓ ^{that rest for ever}

To snap: to speak abrupt to another person to bite

Bleak: a cold and windy time ✓

Relative: a part of your family ✓

Daughter-in-law: The wife of your son ✓

Wicked: a bad person ✓

to haunt: to visit a living person when you are death ✓

Vocabulary

To look after: take care of someone ✓

To bang: to hit something with a stick

To smash: to break, to destroy

To pour: to flow

Upset: make someone sad ✓

Path: road ✓

Greedy: a person who always want more things and is very stingy ✓

To cheat: lay and do bad things in order to win ✓

Summary

Ellen offers to Mr Lockwoods to sleep in a special room, where nobody sleeps. In the shelf he founds different documents, that belong to the same person, who was named with three different surnames (Earnshaw, Linton and Heathcliff).

Mr. was tired and decide to sleep, but he had horrible dreams. He ^{goes} to the window and he touch the hand of a girl and he cries. Mr Heathcliff arrives and become sad, but he decide to go with Mr Lockwoods to Thrushcross Grange. Mrs Dean, the housekeeper starts the history of the two houses and her proprietors.